

VOICEAFRIQUE

CATHOLIC NEWS ANALYSIS

FOLLOWING THE FOOTPRINTS OF GOD IN AFRICA

VoiceAfrique Weekly Update

Catholic News Analysis from Africa by Africans, for Africa and the World
Friday, January 23, 2026

Greetings from VoiceAfrique,

Friday, January 23, 2026

In this week's edition, we explore a landscape where leadership is being redefined and the call for justice grows louder. From the visionary courage of women religious and the civil rights legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. to the urgent need for political renewal in Uganda, these articles examine the vital intersection of faith and power. Whether reflecting on the altruistic call of "Ordinary Time" or the ethical boundaries of authority, these insights invite us to be a Church that is both prophetic and pastoral.

By Sr. Helen Kasaka, LSMI

1. A Mission Made Visible: Sister Grace Akunna and the New Narrative of African Religious Leadership

By Sr. Helen Kasaka, LSMI — PACTPAN Communication Director

This profile explores the transformative leadership of Sister Grace Akunna, highlighting how her work redefines the role of women religious in Africa. It showcases a mission that is no longer hidden but visible, illustrating a shift toward visionary, proactive leadership that addresses the contemporary challenges of the continent while remaining rooted in faith.

Read more: voiceafrique.org/a-mission-made-visible/

2. Building the Beloved Community: The Spiritual Vision of Martin Luther King Jr.

Written by Stan Chu Ilo

Reflecting on the enduring legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., this piece delves into the theological foundations of the "Beloved Community." It examines how King's vision of radical love and social justice remains a vital blueprint for healing divisions and fostering a world where human dignity is the cornerstone of every society.

Read more: voiceafrique.org/spiritual-vision-of-martin-luther-king-jr/

3. Forty Years Is Enough: President Museveni Must Now Begin the Transition to a New Generation of Leaders in Uganda

By VoiceAfrique Editorial

Addressing the political landscape of Uganda, this analysis contends that true stability requires the courage to pass the torch. It argues that after four decades, a peaceful transition is necessary to honor the aspirations of a younger generation, ensuring that leadership reflects the dynamic and evolving needs of the Ugandan people.

Read more: voiceafrique.org/forty-years-is-enough/

4. Ordinary Time is a Period of Altruistic Living

by SimonMary Asese Ahiokhai

Moving beyond the high celebrations of the liturgical year, this reflection invites believers to find the sacred in the "ordinary." It presents Ordinary Time not as a spiritual lull, but as a deliberate season for altruism—a time to practice the quiet, consistent work of love and service in the everyday moments of life.

Read more: voiceafrique.org/ordinary-time-is-a-period-of-altruistic-living/

5. The Uses and Limits of Power: Between Pope Leo's Quiet Revolution and President Trump's MAGAlomania

By Stan Chu Ilo

This provocative comparison examines the nature of authority by contrasting two vastly different approaches to influence. By weighing the "quiet revolution" of moral leadership against the populist surge of modern political movements, the article explores the ethical boundaries of power and the responsibility of those who wield it.

Read more: voiceafrique.org/the-uses-and-limits-of-power/

Stay Connected & Support Our Mission

Sr. Helen Kasaka, LSMI
Editor, VoiceAfrique Catholic
News Analysis

We welcome your feedback, reflections, and contributions. VoiceAfrique is expanding and seeking committed contributors who desire to strengthen African Catholic journalism with integrity, depth, and hope.

Contact: admin@pactpan.org

- We invite you to explore advertising opportunities with us.
- Support our mission and help us build a strong platform for African Catholic news analysis.
- If you know someone who would benefit from this analysis? Please forward this update.

Pan-African Catholic Theology and Pastoral Network (PACTPAN) www.pactpan.org www.pactpan.org